

Italy Chapter

WEDNESDAY MARCH 13TH, 2024 AT 6:00 PM

Investigators, Careers and International Challenges

Opening of the webinar by:

Michele POFFO

Board Member of ACFE Italy Chapter

Speakers:

Paul Edwards

Managing Director of KPP Search

Hikmet Misirlioglu

*Senior Manager Investigations in Carlsberg
Board Member ACFE Denmark Chapter*

In this webinar we will discuss the opportunities existing in the international market for the professionals of investigation:

Especially, we will try to answer these questions:

- For a young investigator, is it realistic to look for opportunities abroad?
- Which companies hire candidates for their investigation teams?
- I would like an investigator role in an international company: how can I start my search?
- Which skills and competencies are attractive for international companies seeking to hire investigators?
- Which education strategy can be the most successful for an investigator targeting international companies?
- Which expectations have international companies towards the new members of their investigation teams?
- I am not young anymore, but I know the "job": I am still in time to apply for international investigator roles?

At the end of the meeting, Paul e Hikmet will be happy to answer your questions.

The Members of Acfe Italy Chapter who will participate may apply for 1 CPE valid to preserve the CFE qualification.

Please register here: <https://acfe.it/eventi/>

Paul Edwards is the Managing Director of KPP Search and in the last 20 years supported the most important Groups worldwide in their search for talents within Internal Audit, Risk Management, Compliance and Fraud Investigation.

Hikmet Misirlioglu is Senior Manager Investigations in Carlsberg, has 15 years fraud-fighting experience and is Board Member of ACFE Denmark Chapter.
